

Jewellery

The content below is for guidance only. TheVeganHut reserves the right to remove any listing it considers to be inappropriate for sale for any reason. Every product should be ethically produced with no animal torture and not using any animal products or by products.

Examples of Permitted Listings

Reminder: all listings and products must comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

You must be approved by TheVeganHut to sell in this category.

- Jewellery
- Gems
- Precious metals (gold, silver, platinum) with the required hallmarks. Sale of precious metals over 1gm must be by weight.

Examples of Prohibited Listings

- Precious metals that are not stamped in compliance with applicable laws, including assay marks on items described as "gold".
- Precious metals over 1gm which have not been weighted with stamped weighing and measuring equipment with the required degree of accuracy.
- Rough diamonds that do not comply with the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme.

Please note: Sellers who list prohibited items or content can have their selling permissions removed, either temporarily or permanently.

Additional Useful Information

- Hallmarking Act 1973, <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/1973/43/contents>
- Website of the Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office, <http://www.thegoldsmiths.co.uk/welcome-to-the-assay-office/>
- The Kimberley Process website, <http://www.kimberleyprocess.com/en>
- Council Regulation (EC) No 2368/2002 of 20 December 2002, implementing the Kimberley Process certification scheme for the international trade in rough diamonds, <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:02002R2368-20140409&from=ES>

- European Commission website on the REACH regulation, which gives guidance on restrictions on the use of certain materials in jewellery items, http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/sectors/chemicals/reach/restrictions/index_en.htm
- The UK Government Diamond Office website, <https://www.gov.uk/the-government-diamond-office>